Frederick Samuel Caldemeyer
Sophia Elizabeth Drees Wellmeyer Caldemeyer

Portrait of a woman, possibly a queen or noblewoman, wearing a crown and ornate dress. The image is framed by a thin rectangular border.

PREFACE

My original intent in beginning this work was a natural curiosity concerning the lives of my ancestors. However, since my efforts have met with such a satisfactory response, I now feel that this might be a means by which communication between the different branches of the family may be obtained to the benefit of all. For this reason I have added a Directory of the living members of the family in this country.

I have attempted to include herein all the descendants of Frederick Samuel Caldemeyer, who migrated to this country from Germany sometime during the 1840's. I have attempted to check all the names and dates as accurately as possible. The sources of my material have been as follows: (1) an old account book of Frederick Samuel Caldemeyer (2) the Library of Congress in Washington (3) the Bureau of Census in Washington and (4) personal communications with various members of the family, both in this country and in Germany. I wish now to gratefully acknowledge the assistance of those who have so faithfully cooperated with me in making this undertaking possible.

At the time of the first meeting of the committee, it was decided that the first step should be to determine the scope of the work to be done. This was done by a series of discussions with the members of the committee and with the various departments of the university. It was found that the work should be confined to the study of the history of the university from its foundation to the present time. This was done by a series of lectures given by the members of the committee and by the various departments of the university. The lectures were given in the following order: 1. The foundation of the university. 2. The early years of the university. 3. The middle years of the university. 4. The late years of the university. 5. The present state of the university. FREDERICK SAMUEL CALDEMEYER

He was born at Lengerich Westfalia, Germany, on Nov. 23, 1812, the fourth child of Frederick Samuel Caldemeyer and Maria Elsabein Stalljohn. His grandfather's name was John Henry Caldemeyer and his grandmother's name was Anna Maria Elisabeth Johannemann.

His mother died when he was less than two years old. During the same year his father married again, his stepmother's name being Anna Catharina Rurwein. He had three sisters, all older than himself; three half-sisters and one half-brother, all younger than himself.

On Aug. 17, 1838, he married Sophia Elizabeth Drees Wellmeyer, widow of Henry Wellmeyer and the mother of three small children, Henry, Ernst and Bernhardina. His wife was born in July, 1811. To this union were born nine children, four in Germany and five in America.

Sometime during the 1840's he left his native country and came to America with his wife, the three Wellmeyer children, and his own four children. I have not been able to determine the exact date of his arrival in this country, but we do know that it was sometime between 1844 and 1847. Neither do we know the reason for his departure from Germany; but it may be surmised that the unsettled revolutionary conditions which existed there during the 1840's had something to do with his emigration.

Soon after his arrival in this country he settled on a farm near Holland in Dubois county, Indiana. Here he prospered as a farmer, and lived to the age of 85 years, departing this life on Mar. 11, 1898. His wife preceded him in death on Nov. 7, 1877. He was also preceded in death by three of his daughters and two of his sons.

The nine children of Frederick Samuel Caldemeyer are as follows:

1. Sophia Elizabeth (Drochelmann). 2. Frederick William. 3. Sophia Frederika (Eilerman). 4. Mary Wilhelmina (Peters). 5. Frederick Samuel. 6. John Herrman. 7. William Samuel. 8. Rudolph Samuel. 9. Mary Frederika (Meyer).

1. CALDEMEYER, SOPHIA ELIZABETH was born July 1, 1839, at Lengerich, Germany. She married William Henry Drochelmann at Evansville, Ind., sometime in 1858. She died in childbirth on May 25, 1859. The child also died and consequently she left no descendants.

2. CALDEMEYER, FREDERICK WILLIAM was born Nov. 26, 1840, at Lengerich, Germany. He married Caroline Schwear on Nov. 9, 1874. His wife was born on Oct. 21, 1851, and died on Nov. 27, 1939. He lived as a farmer in Pike county Indiana, and died at the age of 78 years on March 24, 1919. The six children born to this union are as follows: 1. Henry Samuel; 2. Mary D. (Heidorn); 3. Elizabeth Wilhelmina Sophie (Kahle); 4. Sophia Wilhelmina (Ermert); 5. Matilda (Hartke); 6. Caroline Wilhelmina (Ermert).

1. Caldemeyer, Henry Samuel, born Jan. 3, 1876. Married Laumora Doetker (June 3, 1891) on May 13, 1926.

1. Caldemeyer, Norman b Apr. 22, 1927.

FREEDOM JOURNAL

The first issue of the Freedom Journal was published in 1851. It was the first of many publications that would follow, each dedicated to the cause of freedom for all people.

The second issue was published in 1852. It continued the work of the first, providing news and information about the state of the world and the progress of the freedom movement.

The third issue was published in 1853. It was a significant year for the journal, as it was the first time that the publication was able to reach a wider audience.

The fourth issue was published in 1854. It was a year of great change and progress, and the journal reflected this in its content, which was both informative and inspiring.

The fifth issue was published in 1855. It was a year of continued growth and development, and the journal was able to provide its readers with the latest news and information.

The sixth issue was published in 1856. It was a year of great achievement, and the journal was able to reach even more people than before.

The seventh issue was published in 1857. It was a year of continued progress, and the journal was able to provide its readers with the latest news and information.

The eighth issue was published in 1858. It was a year of great achievement, and the journal was able to reach even more people than before.

The ninth issue was published in 1859. It was a year of continued progress, and the journal was able to provide its readers with the latest news and information.

HENRIETTE CALDEMEYER

Frederick Samuel Caldemeyer had a half-sister, Henriette Christina Wilhelmina Caldemeyer, who migrated to America soon after he did. She was born at Lengerich, Germany on Aug. 20, 1826. She married Ernst Keller in New York City about 1850. They traveled by oxcart to Evansville, Indiana, and from there to Holland, Indiana, where they settled. When her husband died of pneumonia, contracted during the Civil War, she was left with a family of small children to support. Her only possessions were a house and a small plot of land. The neighbors pitched in to build a small building for a store, where she successfully carried on her enterprise until she moved to new Albany, Ind., in 1884. Here she also engaged in the grocery business and was very successful. Upon her death in 1898 she was independent and had been able to provide for the education of her children. She had six children, two of her sons dying in infancy. Her descendants are as follows:

1. Keller, Louisa Eliza born July 13, 1854, died May 6, 1924. Married Henry Blemker.
 1. Blemker, Lula Keller born on Jan. 18, 1884. Married Harry Canann on June 28, 1913.
 1. Canann, Harry born on Apr. 7, 1915.
 2. Canann, Howard born on July 2, 1916. Married Gae Sorensen on July 2, 1940.
2. Keller, Matilda Wilhelmina born in 1856, died in 1924. Married Louis Sieveking.
3. Keller, Franklin Herman born Apr. 13, 1860, died Sept. 2, 1940. Married Elizabeth Koch on Feb. 9, 1909.
 1. Keller, Elizabeth Lucille born on Nov. 8, 1910. Married Frank L. Johnson on June 2, 1934.
 1. Johnson, David Keller born on Aug. 26, 1940.
4. Keller, Caroline Wilhelmina born Feb. 18, 1863, died Mar. 19, 1931. Married Louis G. Stork on Dec. 17, 1890.
 1. Stork, Franklin born on Sept. 9, 1893. Married Katharine Farr on Aug. 4, 1923.
 1. Stork, Franklin born on July 31, 1925.

* Indicates that they were brothers. There may have been other members of the family of which I do not know.

The names in capital letters are the ancestors of those listed in the previous part of this booklet.

The California Land in 1900

There is a growing interest in the California land in 1900. The land is a valuable asset, and it is important to know the facts about it. The following is a list of the facts about the California land in 1900.

The California land in 1900 was divided into three main sections: the northern section, the central section, and the southern section.

The northern section was the largest, and it contained the most valuable land. The central section was the second largest, and it contained the most fertile land. The southern section was the smallest, and it contained the least valuable land.
